

Wildlife Carcass Removal

Should you find a dead animal (not including personal house pets) on your property, the following service performs removal and disposal for a fee. Fees are determined upon the type of animal and location. The company is:

Straight Arrow Hauling; 360-630-4372

StraightArrowHauling.com

Pat.Straightarrowhauling@gmail.com

SLOA does NOT endorse this company, but only provides this information as a service to our membership. SLOA membership is not required to use this company, and may use any other means or service, desired. Let it be known that the illegal disposing of a carcass is a violation of Clallam County codes.

17.01.045 Disposal of animal carcasses.

It shall be unlawful to dispose of or dump dead animals, animal carcasses, or animal parts on public property or private property, other than one's own, without the permission of the owner. It shall be unlawful for a commercial establishment charging for the disposal of animals to dispose of animals by dumping or burying without proper permits. Violation of this section shall be a misdemeanor.

If the dead animal is in/on the county roadway, Clallam County will remove the carcass. Contact the County at: 360-417-2459

SLOA, nor the golf course have any means or service to remove the carcass from private property. Removal is the sole responsibility of the resident/property owner.